ASSOCIATION
(Inc.)

Co-Patrons:

Prime Minister of New Zealand

U.S. Ambassador to New Zealand

The New Zealand-American Association as it is known today was formed in 1939. Its objects have changed little over the years and remain: —

To promote understanding and friendship between Americans and New Zealanders.

To contribute towards a better understanding of the American way of life by New Zealanders.

To co-operate in exchange of visits.

To extend hospitality to American visitors.

To encourage co-operation in science, education, commerce and the Arts.

To celebrate significant American Anniversaries.

Activities include:—

Celebrations to mark Independence Day, Thanksgiving, Halloween.

Commemoration of significant events in American history.

American oriented activities arranged by the Ladies Auxiliary and Social Committee.
